

Australia, South Korea, India and Japan in Southeast Asia:
Secondary roles... but not only

Friday, 17 november 2017

École militaire
14:00 to 17:00

De Bourcet amphitheatre

Photo © United States Navy

Welcoming speech

Jean-Baptiste Jeangène Vilmer (IRSEM)
Jean-François Di Meglio (Asia Centre) / Florence Biot (Asia Centre)

Introduction: From Southeast Asia to Indopacific?

Dr Eric Frécon (Asia Centre, Ecole navale)

Roundtable: Doubts and uncertainty over Chinese and American implications in Southeast Asia (and in the South China Sea)

Chair: Dr S. Boisseau du Rocher (IFRI)

Participants:

Dr Sam Bateman (ANCORS/UOW-RSIS)

Dr J. Nilsson-Wright (Chatham House)

Dr Lee Jaehyon (ASAN Institute)

Dr Jean-Luc Racine (CNRS, Asia Centre)

Panel: Peripheral and second range powers in wait at the heart of Southeast Asia

Chair: Marie-Sybille de Vienne (INALCO)

Australia: Dr Sam Bateman (ANCORS/UOW-RSIS) India: Dr Jean-Luc Racine (CNRS, Asia Centre)

South Korea: Dr Lee Jaehyon (ASAN Institute) Japan: Dr John Nilsson-Wright (Chatham House)

Discussion / Discussant: S.E. Christian Lechervy (CPS)

Conclusion: France in the trail?

Colonel Jean-Michel Millet (DGRIS)

Contact :
h.poras@centreasia.eu

Mandatory registration on our Website :
www.defense.gouv.fr/irsem